

Patrick Lecavalier
Market Development Manager
Aceptis, LLC

IMMEDIATE RELEASE ANNOUNCEMENT

Aceptis, LLC Welcomes Patrick Lecavalier to the Aceptis Management Team

Aceptis, LLC is excited to announce the newest addition to its growing team, Mr. Patrick Lecavalier. Patrick will join Aceptis LLC as the Market Development Manager on September 5, 2023. With more than 30 years of invaluable management experience in the North American dairy farm industry, Patrick brings a wealth of expertise and innovation to the Aceptis team.

In his new role, Patrick will lead the coordination of the market development process for Aceptis, focusing on expanding its reach across North America in the critical dairy market areas. His knowledge of the industry and outstanding track record make him an ideal fit for this crucial position.

Throughout his career, Patrick has distinguished himself by introducing cutting-edge technologies to livestock agriculture systems. These innovations have not only optimized production processes but also elevated hygiene standards, ensuring healthier and more efficient livestock farming practices.

As the Market Development Manager, Patrick will leverage his extensive background to further enhance Aceptis, LLC's animal wellness focused technologies. Patrick's deep understanding of both the industry and innovative hygiene solutions will undoubtedly strengthen and contribute to the success and growth of Aceptis.

"We are thrilled to welcome Patrick to the Aceptis team," said Dr. David Kolb, DVM, a co-owner and Chief Financial Officer. "His proven expertise and remarkable achievements in the dairy farm industry align seamlessly with our commitment to excellence and innovation. We are confident that Patrick's contributions will significantly enhance our ability to serve our customers and make a positive impact on livestock agriculture."

Join us in extending a warm welcome to Patrick Lecavalier as he embarks on this new journey with Aceptis, LLC. His addition to the team signifies an exciting chapter of growth and innovation, as we continue to strive for excellence in delivering state-of-the-art solutions for the agricultural industry.

About Aceptis, LLC: Aceptis, LLC is a pioneering provider of advanced hygiene solutions for optimizing conditions in livestock agriculture. Aceptis empowers producers to create healthier environments for their livestock and enhance overall farm productivity and profitability.
